Sub: Request to nominate Scientists/Faculty members/Research scholars and exhibiting technologies in XVII Agricultural Science Congress of National Academy of Agricultural Sciences (NAAS) during February 20-22, 2025

Dear Prof. Singh,

You are aware that XVII Agricultural Science Congress and Expo of National Academy of Agricultural Sciences (NAAS) is being organized on the theme "Frontier Sciences and Technologies in Agriculture for a Developed India" at G.B. Pant University of Agriculture and Technology, Pantnagar during February 20-22, 2025. The theme of congress aptly aligns with the mission and vision of Government of India to transform India into a developed nation, a dream of billion eyes led by Honorable PM of India Shri Narendra Modi ji.

The Agricultural Science Congress stands as the premier event across the world for agriculture sciences. It provides an ideal platform for the scientists, researchers, academicians, extension workers, farmers, students, industry leaders, and policymakers from both domestic and international Institutions. This congress offers a comprehensive program that includes keynote address, panel discussions, technical sessions, oral/poster presentations, and exhibitions. It serves as a vital platform for networking, sharing knowledge, and building collaborations among participants to address pressing issues of agriculture and explore sustainable solutions for future food security.

The registration process for participation in the congress has already begun. I will request you to nominate scientists/faculty members/research scholars from your Institution. The website (www.17asc2025.in) may be used for completing registration process and submitting abstracts/ full lengths. The brochure of the Congress is being attached for your consideration. In addition to the nomination of the delegates, you may also direct your team to showcase promising technologies developed by your Institution so that it can directly reach the farmers.

For additional information, the local organizing team led by Dr A.S. Nain, Organizing Secretary and Director Research, GBPUAT, Pantnagar may be contacted (Mob- 7817882025; email 17asc.2025@gmail.com). A line of confirmation will greatly help to arrange your smooth stay at Pantnagar and to exhibit technologies.

Looking forward to meeting you and your team at Pantnagar. Let us make this event a grand success.

Best regards,
